1. Artificial Intelligence, or simply "AI", is the latest game changing phenomenon to surface in the minds of men and women that can change the way we look to answer questions and solve problems. Under this system, you just ask a question and instantly you have an answer. So, under this new way, what do you think the effect will be on the human race to solve problems using logical, deductive, empirical thinking like the ancient philosophers Socrates, Cicero, Aristotle, and yes, Sherlock Holmes to set mankind on the road to a better life? Include in your response what you believe is the best solution to this challenge.
